The Human Medical Device Gamjee Roll is made from high-quality, surgical-grade absorbent cotton covered with a soft, low-adherent gauze layer. It is designed to provide a gentle protective interface between the wound and the dressing, helping to prevent sticking and reduce patient discomfort.

- Highly absorbent cotton for effective wound care
- Low-adherent gauze cover prevents dressing from sticking to wounds
- Suitable for primary wound dressings or for use over existing dressings
- Promotes faster healing and protects against infection
- Ideal for wound cleansing, medication application, and packing
- Used for swabbing and cleaning low-exudate wounds
- Safe, hygienic, and suitable for all medical and surgical settings
